Schools of Qur'anic Exegesis Hussein Abdul-Raof, 2013-12-13 Qur'anic exegesis has become the battleground of political Islam and theological conflict among various Muslim schools of thought Using comparative and contrastive methodology examples from the Qur'an are investigated in the light of various theological views to delineate the birth development and growth of Qur'anic exegesis The political status quo in the past and at present has impinged upon Qur'anic exegesis more than on any other discipline in Islamic studies This book illustrates the dichotomy between mainstream and non mainstream Islam showing how Qur'anic exegesis reflects the subtle dogmatic differences and political cleavages in Islamic thought Chapters explore in depth the intrusive views of the compilers of early exegesis manuscripts the scepticism among Western scholars about the authenticity of early Muslim works of exegesis and of prophetic tradition and the role of exegesis as a tool to reaffirm the Qur'an as a canon Written to appeal to those with comparative exegetical interests as well as those focused on Islamic studies in general this book will be an important reference for research students scholars and students of Islamic Studies Theology Religious studies and Middle Eastern Studies

Narrating Southern Chinese Minority Nationalities Guo Wu, 2019-01-19 Based on fieldwork archival research and interviews this book critically examines the building of modern Chinese discourse on a unified yet diverse Chinese nation on various sites of knowledge production It argues that Chinese ideology on minority nationalities is rooted in modern China's quest for national integration and political authority However it also highlights the fact that the complex process of conceptualizing investigating classifying curating and writing minority history has been fraught with disputes and contradictions As such the book offers a timely contribution to the current debate in the fields of twentieth century Chinese nationalism minority policy and anthropological practice
