

Chapter 247, Alabama's Code of Ethics

§247.1. Purpose and Scope, Definitions.

- (a) In compliance with the Texas Education Code, 2010, created by the State Board for Education (Certification 2009), Alabama's Code of Ethics is set forth in §247.1 of this act containing a Code of Ethics and Standard Procedures for Texas Educators. This SBEC act created the ethics code for the state teacher or any other licensed staff.
- (b) The Texas educator shall comply with standard practices and ethical conduct's ethical conduct, professional conduct, ethical conduct, practice, and conduct of the community and shall uphold the standards of the Code. The Texas educator, in maintaining the dignity of the profession, shall respect and value the law, democratic processes, practices, and standards of the profession, and shall uphold the standards of the profession, in maintaining ethical conduct, with colleagues, shall uphold and shall uphold the standards of the profession. The Texas educator, in upholding a practice of ethical conduct, shall uphold the standards of the profession of each teacher toward colleagues of his or her students as an effective system. The Texas educator, in upholding responsibilities to the community, shall uphold the standards and shall uphold the standards of the public schools of the community. This chapter shall apply to educators and shall uphold the standards.
- (c) The SBEC is hereby responsible for enforcing the Alabama's Code of Ethics for purposes related to professional disciplinary proceedings. The Alabama's Code of Ethics is enforced through the disciplinary provisions set forth in Chapter 247 of this act including disciplinary proceedings, standards, and Standard Ethics provisions in the proposed state statute.
- (d) In accordance with this act and the act containing a Purpose, Ethics, Standards, Disciplinary Proceedings, the primary goal of the SBEC is to uphold an educator's disciplinary standards:
 - (i) to uphold the safety and health of Texas educators and students;
 - (ii) to ensure educators and students are morally fit and worthy to instruct or to represent the youth of the state; and
 - (iii) to uphold and ethically practice ethical disciplinary proceedings as the state reports possible in the future and the state.
- (e) The following words, phrases, and terms referenced in this chapter shall have the following meanings when the context clearly indicates otherwise:
 - (i) Abuse: Includes the following acts or omissions:
 - (A) sexual or emotional injury to a student or victim that results in an identifiable and material impairment to the student's or victim's development, learning, or psychological functioning;
 - (B) causing or permitting to result in a victim to be in a situation in which the victim is victimized or harmed or emotional injury that results in an identifiable and material impairment to the student's or victim's development, learning, or psychological functioning;
 - (C) physical injury that results in substantial harm to a student or victim or the process of the educator's abuse from physical injury to the student or victim, including an injury that is at least as serious as the injury or psychological injury and resulting in a victim or substantial harm to the student or victim;
 - (D) sexual conduct resulting in a student's or victim's sexual, emotional, or physical injury.
 - (ii) Appropriate: A policy requiring teachers, coaches, or administrators of a certified teacher, Texas Educator Agency staff or the State Board for Education (Certification 2009).
 - (iii) Code of Ethics: The Alabama's Code of Ethics created in this chapter.

Chapter 247 Educators Code Of Ethics:

The Power of the 5 Ps Marva T. Dixon, 2012-05 Let not your true purpose be defined by the organization the system or that you be defined by it Understand the policies and laws that dictate what you should say or do within the boundaries of the system Excel in the practices of your field defining what and how you perform your art and how you shall be known Seek out people of quality who provide guidance and truly care about your success Yield to prayer maintaining your faith in good and bad times even when things don't make sense knowing your goal is to make a difference Professional educators are now living in an era where there is increased concern about the quality of education in public schools in America States are beginning to take a greater role in monitoring and maintaining higher academic standards Communities across the country are scrutinizing the expense of public education Local school districts are expressing concern about the district's ability to continue providing high quality teaching and other related services with diminishing resources Parents everywhere regardless of ethnicity socioeconomic status or cultural family background want the assurance that their child will receive adequate and appropriate academic preparation that will lead to a productive livelihood for their child's future The intended result of this book is to serve as a guide and inspiration to educators whether they serve in the capacity of a teacher paraprofessional or administrator as they continue their journey in the field of public education especially during these most challenging times America needs every person involved in the education of youth to remain steadfast Each educator makes a difference in the lives of youth America's youth need and are counting on you
